Dear Chief Executive,

PROPOSALS FOR FUTURE UNITARY STRUCTURES

I write further to my letter of 25 July 2007, in which I explained that the Secretary of State was not minded to implement your unitary proposal, submitted in response to our Invitation to councils in England on 26 October 2006, once the Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Bill was enacted.

I am now writing to inform you that, having had regard to all the relevant information available, the Secretary of State has confirmed her 'minded to' decision of 25 July 2007 that there is not a reasonable likelihood that, if implemented, your proposal would meet the outcomes specified by all of the five criteria set out in the 'Invitation to Councils' on 26 October 2006. Accordingly she has decided under section 7(1)(c) of the Local Government and Public Involvement Act 2007 to take no action in relation to your proposal.

I am enclosing a copy of the decision letter which I have today sent to Northumberland County Council in response to their proposal for a single unitary council for Northumberland.

You will see that on the basis of the information presented to us we are satisfied that the proposal meets the five criteria set out in our Invitation to Councils in England issued on 26 October 2006. Accordingly the Secretary of State intends to implement the County Council's proposal by order made under section 7 of the Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007.

If you have any queries about the substance of the decision you should write in the first instance to Ian Barber at ian.barber@communities.gov.uk.

Yours sincerely,

P Rowsell
